

INDUS STATE UNIVERSITY

Library Facilities

Fictional university knowledge-base document for AI/RAG chatbot testing.

Facilities

- The university library provides textbooks, reference books, journals, digital resources, and study spaces.
- Students can access library services using a valid university identity card.
- Digital resources may be accessed through the university library portal.

Borrowing

- Eligible students can borrow books according to the library's current lending limits.
- Borrowed materials must be returned by the due date.
- Late returns may attract penalties under library rules.
- Lost or damaged books may require replacement or recovery of applicable charges.

Timings and Support

- Library opening hours are published by the Library Administration and may change during examinations or holidays.
- Students can contact library staff for catalog searches, borrowing questions, and digital-resource access.

Common Questions

- Do I need an ID card? Yes, a valid university identity card is used for library services.
- Can I use digital resources? Yes, the university provides digital resources through its library services.
- What happens if I lose a book? Contact the library for the applicable replacement or recovery procedure.